A Special Thanks!

We would like to thank the faculty and staff for promoting academic and creative excellence and for making the Symposium possible through their roles as mentors and sponsors. We would like to thank the student participants and the many individuals who have helped to organize this symposium. It has been a great team effort.

A special thanks is also extended to Ruthi Duval of The Wisconsin Union; Melissa Tedrowe of the Writing Center; Kent Hamele, Nancy Rinehart, and Linda Kietzer of University Communications; Jeff Crucius of the Division of Information Technology; Patricia Iaccarino at the College Library; and Karen Lederer and Jan Lucchesi of the College of Letters and Science, Student Academic Affairs.

The 12th annual Undergraduate Symposium is a celebration of undergraduate students’ accomplishments across the many schools and colleges at UW–Madison. The Symposium includes presentations, posters, and displays by groups and individuals representing the arts and humanities, biological sciences, physical sciences, and social sciences. These original works showcase the vast range of talent and creativity within the university’s undergraduate population.

Congratulations!

The Undergraduate Symposium has become the premier campuswide event showcasing our students’ incredible talents in research and scholarship, creative works, and community involvement. I want to congratulate you on your achievement, and I want to encourage you to explore the accomplishments of your colleagues. Leaf through this program booklet and take a look at others’ work presented and displayed throughout the Union today.

We take great pride in what you’ve done and take every opportunity to brag about you. Former Symposium presenters have gone on to brilliant careers in academia, law, medicine, business, the arts, and the sciences. We look forward to hearing what you accomplish next.

Again, congratulations and enjoy the day!
